Loppet Trail starts in the parking area and ends at Loppet Point. The first 2.5 km is relatively flat. After a steep climb over Moose Huff Hill, Loppet rolls through Red Saddle and descends two hills to Loppet Point, offering a spectacular 20-mile vista before returning.

Roller Coaster is a short, easy trail, that winds through young pines before returning to Loppet.

I Scream adds a gradual climb, nice views, and steep descent before returning to Roller Coaster and Kansas.

Pendleton Plunge is a short, very steep hill and return climb between Roller Coaster and Kansas.

Kansas rolls through easy to intermediate terrain before returning to Loppet.

Butcher begins at the top of Moose Huff Hill and from Butcher Point provides an outstanding view of 1,400'-deep Meacham Canyon.

Tillicum is a favorite for skiers who desire a trail with slight ups and downs, and continuous views including from Tillicum Point.

Quarry offers more open surroundings, with rolling terrain and a steep downhill section with quick turns.
